

Factsheet 2021

University name	UNESP - Universidade Estadual Paulista Júlio de Mesquita Filho
UNESP in brief	UNESP is a multicampus University with 34 Schools in 24 different cities (campuses) among the state of São Paulo. Its Main Administrative Building is located in São Paulo, capital. Website: https://www.international.unesp.br/
Language of instruction	Undergraduate Programs: Portuguese
Contact hours per course	60 hours (4-UNESP credit course or 2 ECTS)
Teaching methods	Lectures, seminars, presentations, teamwork, written exams and tests

Academic calendar	The Academic year at UNESP is divided into first and second semesters. The specific dates are determined each semester and differ from campus to campus. For specific dates and other information, please access the local UNESP campus website. First Semester: From the beginning of March to mid July Second Semester: From the beginning of August to the beginning of December
Final Exam week	One week after the end of classes.
Official transcripts	The original transcript is sent to the student's Home University free of charge. (Available in Portuguese only)
UNESP Grading Scale
Minimum GPA requirement	According to the academic and administrative requirements established by the applicant's home university to authorize participation in international virtual mobility.
eMobi@Dg² Nomination procedure	Candidates must complete the application form on the eMobi @ Dg ² website by March 1st, 2021 with the required documents in hand. For any questions, we invite candidates to contact their school counselor.
Application deadlines	March 1st, 2021
Student ID and email	Each student will receive the necessary information to connect to UNESP's portal. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A Identification Number - A university Login and email
Contact person for eMobi@Dg²	paulo.watanabe@unesp.br